CAREER SUMMARY & OBJECTIVES

I'm a recent Computing graduate with a strong passion for web development. I'm excited to kickstart my career in web development through an internship. With a solid foundation in programming and web technologies, I'm eager to gain hands-on experience and contribute to real web projects. My goal for this internship is to gain practical experience in web development, enhance skills in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and frameworks, collaborate effectively, and build a portfolio. This will be a launching pad for my web development career.
